Cellular Jail

Visit Cellular Jail & witness the Light & Sound Show

On arrival at Veer Savarkar Airport, our travel executive will receive and escort you to your hotel. After check in, your day tour would start with a visit to the main attraction in Port Blair, the historic national memorial cellular jail also known as kalapani. The Cellular Jail declared a national memorial was constructed by Britishers in 1906. Cellular Jail has mutely witnessed the most inhumane atrocities borne by the convicts, who were mostly freedom fighters. The day draws to a gentle close with the Sound and Light Show at the Cellular Jail which gives you a vivid experience of its strong association with the freedom fighters and their struggle for independence. Overnight stay in Port Blair.

Day 2: Visit North Bay Island (Coral island) & Netaji Subhash Chandra Bose (Ross) Island

North Bay is a coral island 20 mins by speed boat from Port Blair. The beach with its fringing coral reef is best for Scuba Diving & Sea Walking. This is a perfect getaway for the adventure seekers. Ross Island was the erstwhile capital of Port Blair during the British regime. This island hosts the remains of the British era buildings, swimming pool etc. and is an ideal destination for nature walk amidst sylvan surroundings with deers, peacocks, exotic birds giving you company. Overnight stay in Port Blair.

Note: In order to save time & for a good deal on the price, it is recommended to pre-book your activities in North Bay.

Day 3: Swaraj Dweep (Havelock Island), Radhanagar Beach

Get geared up to visit Asia's No.1 beach rated by Times magazine. After a 2 hour journey in the Andaman Sea with the flying fishes and Dolphins (you may be lucky to sight some) reach Havelock islands. You will be received at the jetty by our tour manager/driver. After hotel check-in visit Radhanagar beach. This blue flag certified white sand beach is best place for swimming as there are no rocks in the coast and the waves are not too high. Although Havelock is the most developed of the islands, it's still very low-key and simple – a world away from the busy life of mainland India. Overnight stay in Havelock.

Note: In case of morning cruise departures, please carry packed breakfast

Day 4: Return from Havelock, afternoon visit local museums & shopping

Return to Port Blair by morning ferry. Check in to your hotel. After lunch visit Anthropological museum maintained and managed by ASI (Anthropological Survey of India), it is an exquisite small museum showcasing wide collection of tools and weapons used by Andamanese tribes. This also encloses many photographs of different tribes and aborigines of Andaman and Nicobar Islands. Visit Sagarika emporium or some local handicraft shops to pick some wood or shell craft as a souvenir for your dear ones back home. You may also visit the local market or stop over for some tea & snacks. Overnight stay in Port Blair.

Day 5: Baratang Island through Jarawa reserve and Limestone caves

Depart early in the morning from Port Blair for Baratang - about 105 kms by road. Baratang provides an ideal place for the eco-friendly tourist seeking the solitude of virgin nature. The land route from Port Blair (4.5 hours drive by Car) involves crossing of creeks and dense tropical rain forests. Visit the exotic Limestone Caves & ride the speed boat through the dense mangrove forests. Overnight stay in Port Blair.

Special note: The journey to Baratang is through tribal reserve. On the way you may come in contact with the Jarawas. Do not take their photographs or stop the vehicle in between to interact with them. Guests violating the tribal reserve rules are liable to be prosecuted.

Day 6: Full day Port Blair City Tour

Visit the Chatham Saw mill, once the biggest saw mill in Asia. Here you can witness the process of sawing huge logs into wood. You can also collect some souvenirs of the famous Padauk wood, found only in Andamans. Next on your itinerary would be the Samudrika museum, maintained by Indian Navy. This is a museum showcases all types of marine life found in these islands. Post lunch visit Anthropological museum showcasing the life style of different tribes and aborigines of Andamans. Books and films depicting the life and culture of the tribes of Andaman and Nicobar islands are also preserved here. End your day tour with some shopping in the Sagarika emporium or some local market shops. Overnight stay in Port Blair.

Day 7: Visit to Mount Harriet National Park

Stationed at 383 metres above sea level and 15 kms by road and ferry from Port Blair, Mount Harriet is the highest peak in South Andaman. Its natural charm and beauty attracts a lot of visitors. From the top of the peak, one can get a magnificent view of the Port Blair city, Ross Island and Havelock Island. One can trek up to Madhuban through a nature trail and can find rare flora and fauna, endemic birds, animals and butterflies. Mt. Harriet to Madhuban offers the awesome trekking trail; the complete track is lined with rich and meagre forest life, flora and fauna. Overnight stay in Port Blair.

Chidiyatapu Sunset

Chidiyatapu as the name suggests is a bird watchers paradise, with wide range of flora and fauna and the dense forests. The marine drive to Chidiyatapu from Port Blair passes through tropical forests and beautiful sea shore. Munda Pahad beach is ideal for spending a lazy afternoon. The fallen trees along the coast line create an amazing landscape for photography enthusiasts.

The sunset view in the sea is a mesmerizing experience to end your day. You may enjoy evening tea in the beach and head back to Port Blair as it gets dark.

Day 8: Fly back home

Conclude your tour with transfer to the airport to board your return flight back home. Arrive home with wonderful memories of your holiday in Andaman, which we are sure you will treasure for a lifetime.

Note: Settle your extra food bill etc with the hotel in advance to avoid any last moment delay/inconvenience. Report to airport at least 2 hours prior to departure time.
